

Code of Ethics

Kitara Priestess Tarot

- I will serve the best interests of my clients with professionalism and integrity.
- I will maintain the highest levels of confidentiality and privacy and will not share client information without prior approval.
- I will share what I see in the Tarot cards with honesty and transparency.
- I will always provide readings with compassion and in a non-judgmental manner.
- I read the Tarot for guidance in all areas of life. However, if the client needs advice in any area for which I am not qualified, I will encourage the client to seek out professional advice (e.g. medical, legal, financial).
- To protect the privacy of others, I will not read on a third party (e.g. “Will James ask Jane to marry him”). Where possible, I will rephrase the question to focus the reading on what is directly related to the client.
- I will provide guidance and insight, but I will not make definitive predictions nor take away the free will of my clients.
- I will allow my clients to take responsibility for the decisions and actions they take following a Tarot reading.
